

Souderton Area High School
Parent Participation Meeting
October 22, 2025
9:30 AM, Student Center~Library

12 parents were present.

Program:

- Senior Projects (November 4th and 24th) – Sam Varano emphasized that the best preparation for senior projects is to look at past videos on the website of successful presentations.

Miscellaneous:

- Voices in Education – Principals, Matt Haines and Jeremy Miller, presented on the Voices in Education Project, which began last year. The project involves Souderton student leaders developing programs to be implemented at SAHS. The students also presented their ideas to the state legislature and the Montgomery County Intermediate Unit. Last year, their ideas, and implemented programs (this year), focused on mental health awareness and support, of which Matt Haines spoke of numerous parts, including Question, Persuade, Refer (QPR) and the National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI) presentations in 9th grade Health classes and 10th grade English classes. Also, Matt Haines informed that as a promotion of mental health awareness and fundraising, the entire school will be engaged in another lip dub on March 13, 2026.
- Words of Worth – Matt Haines presented on the mural that will be developed with every student participating in some way throughout the school, which will contain a message about positive self-image. The development of the mural is being facilitated by artist, Tim Gibson.
- FAFSA Completion Night (November 10th, 5:30 PM) – College counselor and Guidance coordinator, Tom Overberger, informed parents of seniors about the opportunity to come that evening and complete their FAFSA application.
- Parent-Teacher Conferences (November 25th) – The conferences are scheduled at the initiative of either parents or teachers. The conferences are for 15 minutes and may be in person, virtual, or by phone.
