

Teacher Tuesday

Mrs. Miles

- ESL Teacher – 23 years (22 years in elementary!)
- Bachelors in Elementary Ed. and ESL Certification from Messiah University
- Masters in Bilingual Studies from LaSalle University

Things You Should Know

- I have 4 kids
- I taught for 2 years in Guadalajara, Mexico

Favorites

- wawa coffee
- Hiking
- skiing
- watching my kids' sports

Why I Became A Teacher

I love helping children overcome obstacles, next challenges, and learn new things – especially a new language!

Teacher Tuesday

Mr. Johnson

- 8th Grade Math Teacher – 26 years
- Bachelors in Mathematics from Ursinus University
- Masters in Mathematics from Villanova University

Things You Should Know

- My parents met each other when they both taught at IVMS.

Favorites

- Bring back College Bowl Tournaments
- Singing in the Souderton Alumni Men's Chorus

Why I Became A Teacher

I care and enjoy learning. I look forward to come to school everyday.

Teacher Tuesday

Mrs. Bartelstone

- 8th Grade ELA Teacher – 12 years
- Bachelors in English with a minor in Creative Writing from Central Connecticut State University
- Masters in Secondary Ed. ELA from Sacred Heart University

Things You Should Know

- I have one daughter
- I have a pitbull mix
- I was born in England
- I love music
- I grew up outside of Pittsburgh
- I am NOT 6 ft tall 😊

Favorites

- Pumpkin spiced coffee
- Fall
- Family time
- Reading
- Steelers/football Sundays!

Why I Became A Teacher

My incredibly beautiful 6th grade teacher. She was over 6ft tall and loved her job and radiated positivity and kindness. I always wanted to grow up and be just like her!

